BELK COLLEGE of BUSINESS

MEMORANDUM

TO: Belk College of Business Faculty

FROM: Dr. Daryl L. Kerr, Associate Dean for Undergraduate Programs

DATE: August 23, 2013

SUBJECT: Request to Posthumously Award Degree to Jared Ross Reynolds

One of our undergraduate students, Mr. Jared Ross Reynolds, passed away on March 25, 2013. He was a senior, Finance major in the Belk College of Business. Jared was planning to graduate in Second Summer Session. He had earned 113 semester hours towards his degree and had a 2.571 GPA. I am requesting that the Belk College faculty recommend awarding him a posthumous degree.

The University policy states that “any student who at the time of his death was duly enrolled and had completed 90 semester hours towards a degree at UNC Charlotte shall, upon the recommendation of the faculty in his College, be awarded his degree posthumously.” (April 17, 1975)
