RE: Representation on University Faculty Council

The Performing Arts Services' full-time faculty with continuous contracts request representation on University Faculty Council.

The Performing Arts Services unit is comprised of eight full-time lecturers (including three Senior Lecturers) that serve the departments of theatre, dance, and music. For the last eight years, PAS faculty have taught courses in the three performing arts units, but PAS is the sole unit home for this group of lecturers. Having built the unit's governance process with the College including its own mission statement and strategic plan, faculty now request a voice and vote on the University Faculty Council. This is a similar request to the University Writing Program that was approved in 2018.
